II. PROJECT INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS

A. OVERVIEW OF UCR

UCR is situated on nearly 1,200 acres located three miles east of downtown Riverside. It is in the heart of the “Inland Empire,” or “Inland Southern California”, an area that includes western Riverside and San Bernardino counties and has become one of the fastest growing areas in California. UCR serves as one of the most important educational and cultural resources for the area.

Undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree programs are offered to one of the most diverse student populations in the nation from three colleges and four professional schools: College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences; the College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences; the Bourns College of Engineering; the School of Business; the Graduate School of Education; the School of Medicine, and the School of Public Policy. As of Fall 2021, UC Riverside enrollment was 26,434. An update to the Long Range Development Plan (LRDP) is currently underway to support further development of the University based on an estimated enrollment of 35,000 students by 2035.

B. PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Approximately 60% of the university’s total campus space is 40 years old or older, and most of the original campus buildings have yet to be renovated to address failing infrastructure or improved energy efficiency. Greenhouses 7-21 are such buildings.

Built in the 50s, greenhouses 7-21 are located on the East Campus, along East Campus Drive and Eucalyptus Drive, and have the following areas:

The facilities presently house research programs within the College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences (CNAS) including the following Departments: Environmental Sciences, Agricultural Operations, Nematology, Microbiology and Plant Pathology, Botany and Plant Sciences. No major system renewal has been implemented since its construction.

UCR has recently been provided state funding to complete limited critical deferred maintenance projects at greenhouses 7-21. Prior to implementing these improvements, the University desires a comprehensive building condition assessment to assist with planning and implementation of these initial projects, as well as potentially future subsequent needed improvements.

The facility condition assessment should include an assessment of the existing building systems & infrastructure, including, but not limited to, the following: evaporative cooling systems, boilers, heat exchangers, heat pumps and other HVAC systems; chillers, pumps, cooling towers, and other HVAC systems.

Consultant to provide recommendations and options for selective repair/renewal, and/or renovation. Recommendations to include development strategies and high-level costs estimates.

C. SCOPE OF SERVICES

Phase I Services, including, but not necessarily limited to:

1. Evaluation of existing building’s mechanical (HVAC) systems based on extensive on-site investigation and review of record documents in terms of: 1) equipment and systems physical condition and requirements, 2) operational and maintenance deficiencies, 3) current output, and 4) available capacities. (Selected team to propose additional strategies and specific investigations that will assist with information assessment as needed.)
2. Review of university-identified deferred maintenance needs.
3. Identify system deficiencies as well as code, life safety, and accessibility deficiencies.
4. Develop recommendations and priorities for incremental/phased repair, and/or major renovation, including mechanical (HVAC), controls strategies with flexible options as required to address current deficiencies and future needs.
5. Develop a cost estimate of probable construction costs for recommendations and options at various levels of development (IE; investigation, study, completion of schematic design, and design development, etc.). Define total cost of deficiencies that can be repaired without triggering required code and ADA upgrades.
6. Produce written, graphic, and digital documentation that clearly presents recommendations and cost ROMS.

Phase 2 Scope of Services (Optional to University)

Phase 2A

- Full architectural and engineering services for selected scope resulting from Phase 1 Assessment, as well as any additional deferred maintenance work the University is able to fund in the next 18 months.
Phase 2B

- Full architectural and engineering Services for potential major renovation project, if funding available and authorized by campus.

Architectural and Engineering Services will be in accordance with the terms of the EDPA as required for Schematic Design, Design Development, Construction Documents Phase, Cost Estimation, Bidding Phase, and Construction Phase through and including the 11th month Warranty walk. (Including support in identifying and estimating cost of alternates and construction feasibility dependent on budget and answering RFI’s during bidding and construction.) Basic Services to be further enumerated prior to Phase 2.

Anticipated Construction Budget(s): To be determined.

D. SCHEDULE

The Phase 1 Assessment is to begin shortly after the selection of the firm and is projected to commence on or about first quarter 2022 and be completed by the middle of the second quarter 2022.
